

TALISMAN

1978

The Most I Can Do For My Friend Is Simply To Be His Friend.

To the Class of '78

As we began high school the mere thought of being a senior was beyond our imagination. We never imagined our four years would go by so rapidly.

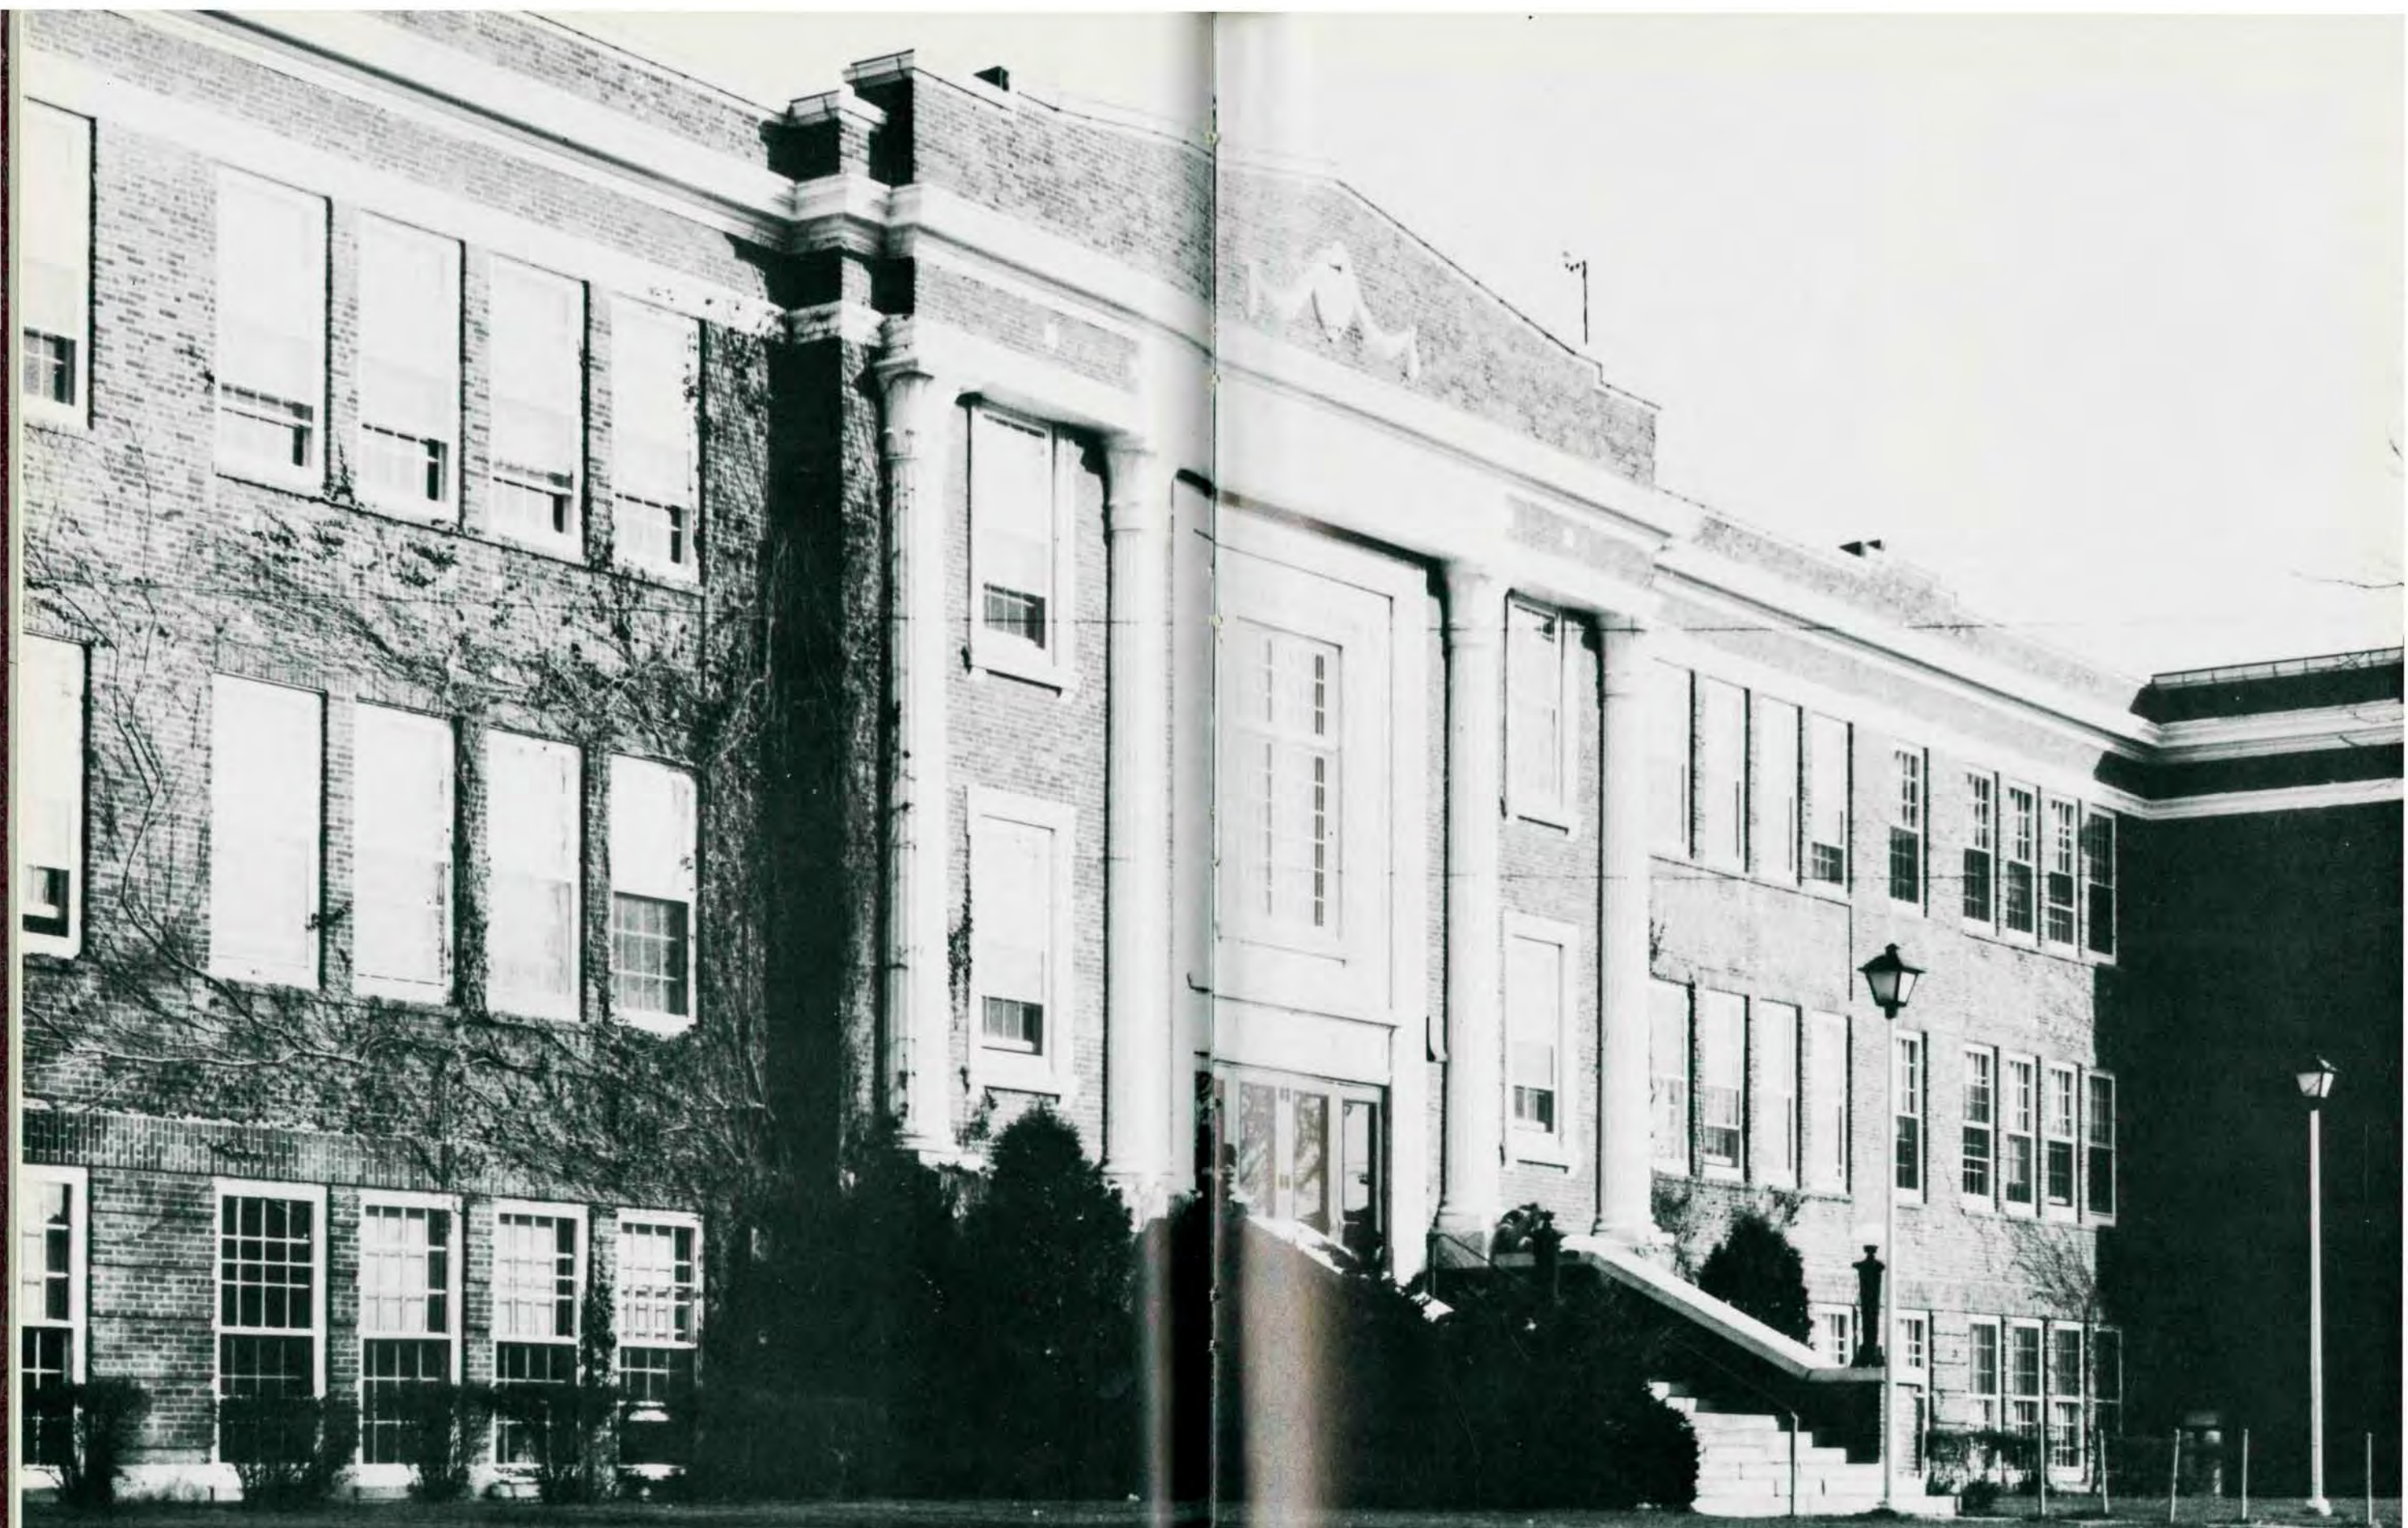

Now we are seniors, and the years have ended. We can look back and say "they were great."

We hope this yearbook will capture some of those good times of your high school days.

Our sincere wish is that each time you open your Talisman you will smile and say "I remember."

Congratulations,
The '78 Talisman Staff

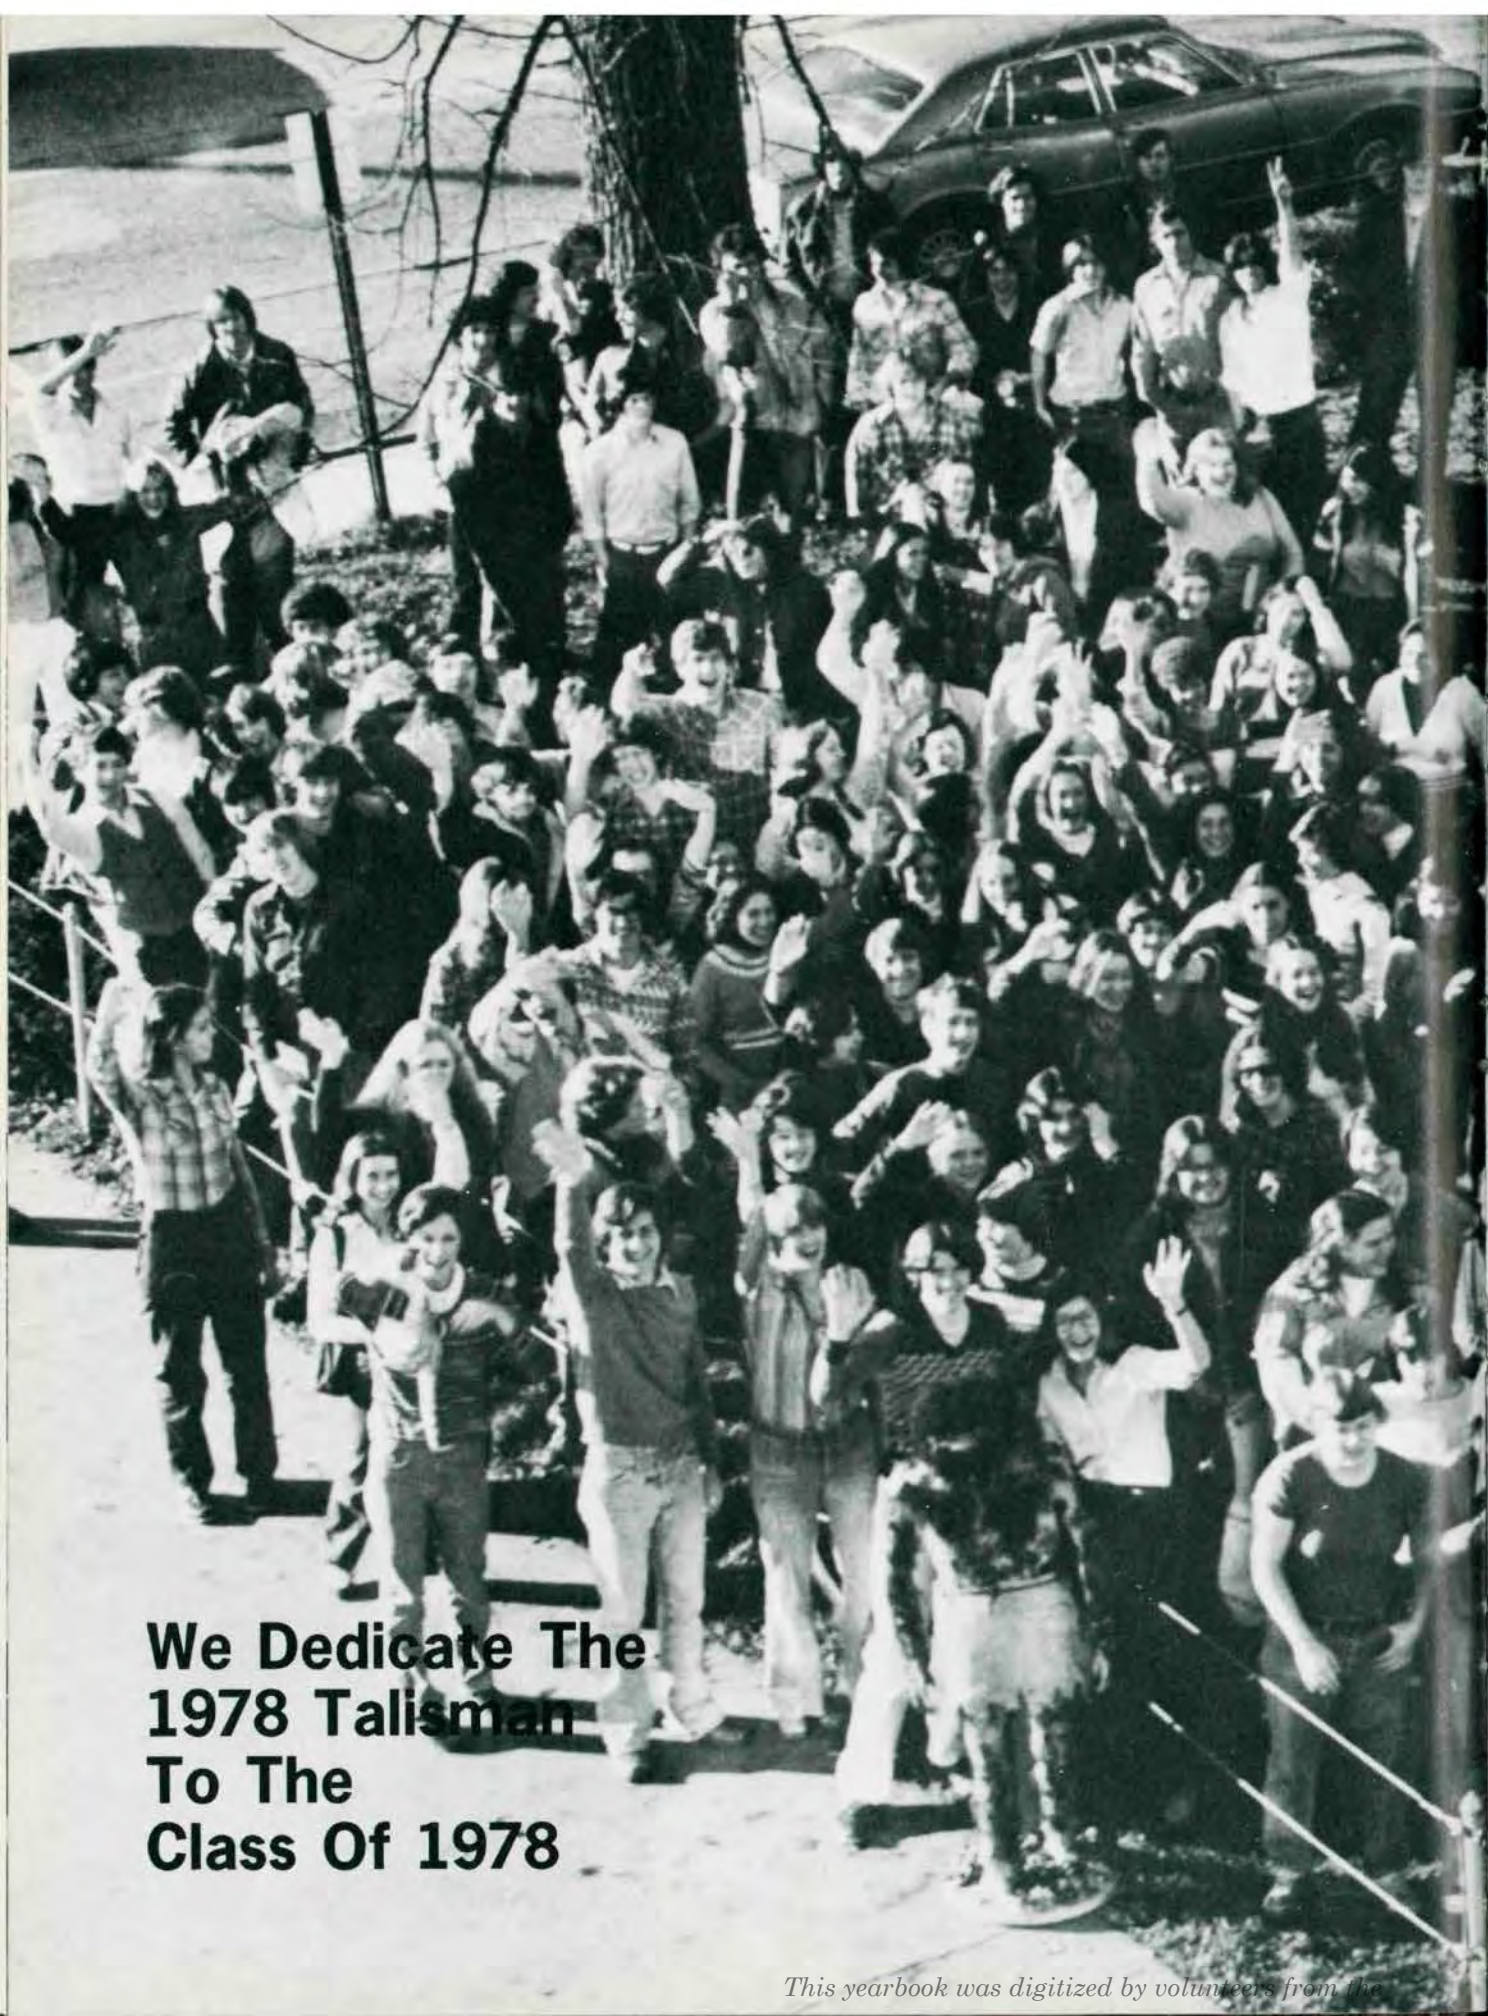

What is a Friend ?

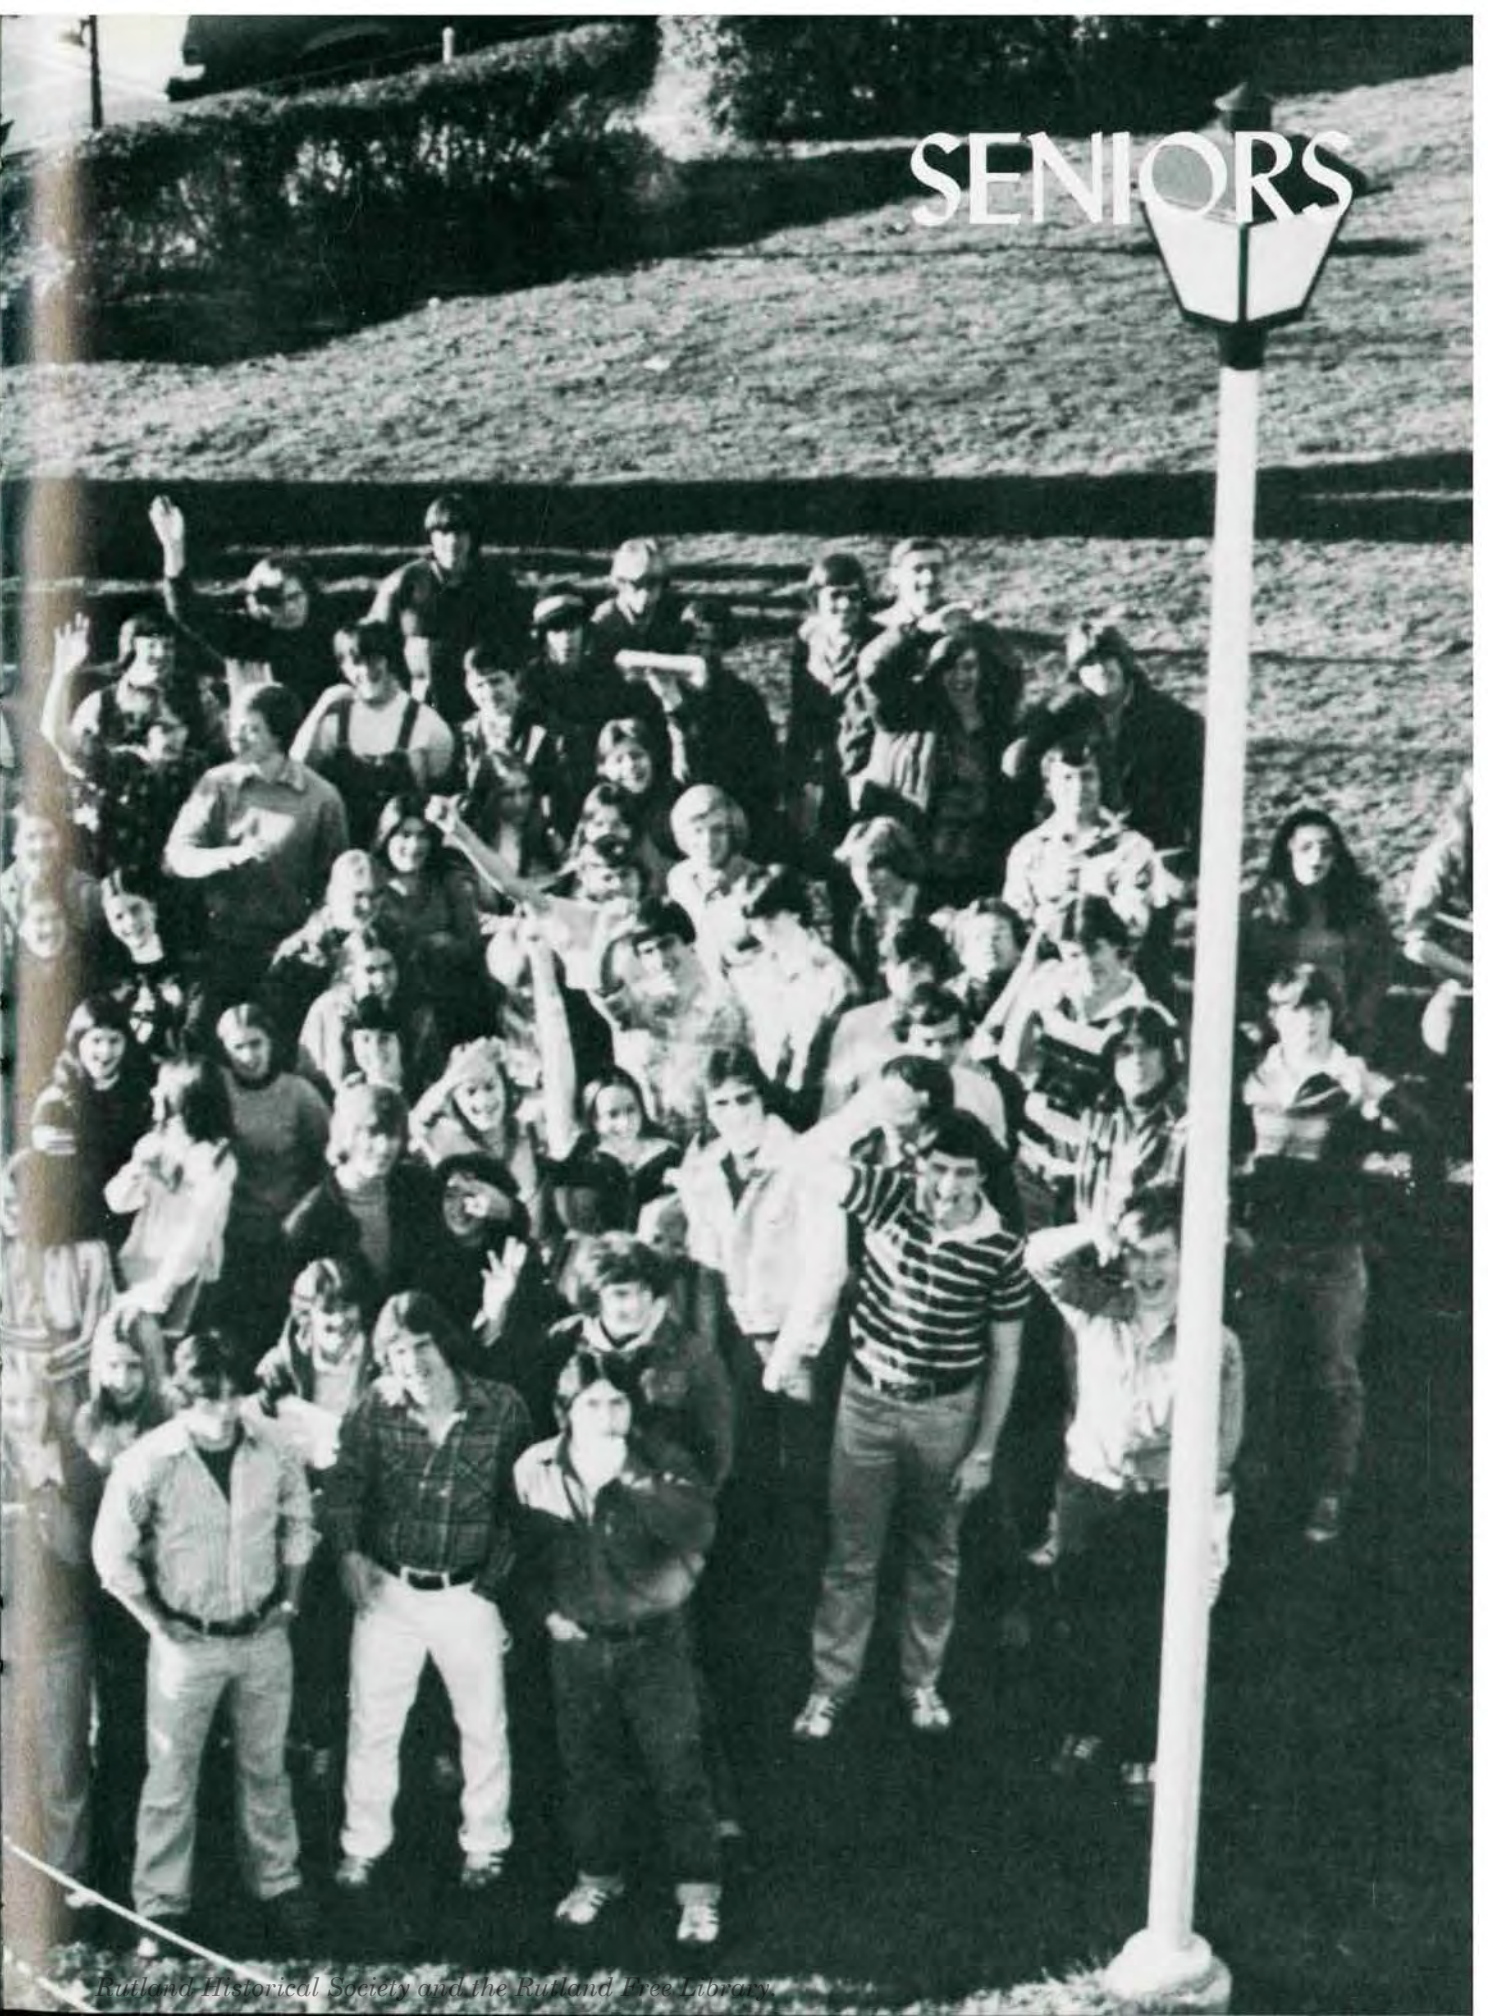

What is a friend? I will tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. Your soul can be naked with him. He seems to ask of you to put on nothing, only to be what you are. He does not want you to be better or worse. When you are with him, you feel as a prisoner feels who has been declared innocent. You do not have to be on your guard. You can say what you think, so long as it is genuinely you. He understands those contradictions in your nature that lead others to misjudge you. With him you breathe freely. You can avow your little vanities and envies and hates and vicious sparks, your meannesses and absurdities and, in opening them up to him, they are lost, dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty. He understands. You do not have to be careful. You can abuse him, neglect him, tolerate him. Best of all, you can keep still with him. It makes no matter. He likes you—He is like fire that purges to the bone. He understands. He understands. You can weep with him, sin with him, laugh with him, pray with him. Through it all—and underneath—he sees, knows and loves you. A friend? What is a friend? Just one, I repeat, with whom you dare to be yourself.

— C. Raymond Beran

For all that has been

Hip Hip Hoorah

For all that will be - Wow

A huge world awaits - Each day

Calls forth that which is best in us
Our friends we met in these high school years
Through win or loss our teams we cheered
Our Teachers all tried to make us learn
While freedom from classes we did yearn
Dancing - driving - moving around
Chatting - partying - good times were found
As we look back since 1974

Many fun times were in store
Years from now in this book we'll see
Memories of all that school was meant to be
We've shared alot with laughs & such
Times to when our lives did touch
Although our journey now begins anew
We won't forget dear friends like you.
